CAMINO IS SAFE IN PORT

Crippled Coast Liner, Passenger-Laden, Towed Into San Francisco Bay

With Propeller Gone, Vessel Is at the Mercy of the Sea Until Rescued

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 22.—The steamer Watson, towing the coastwise liner Camino, arrived here today, six days out from Portland, with a story of furious weather, danger and disablement, but thanks to her wireless equipment, the period of suspense was only momentary.

With eighty passengers on board, many of whom had never been to sea before, the Camino cleared from Portland a week ago tomorrow. About 100 miles off Astoria she ran into a stiff southeast gale which increased in velocity until it touched eighty miles an hour.

Heavy seas swept the decks, smashed in doors and flooded the staterooms. The terrified passengers gathered in the saloon, for it was too rough to sleep, many of them praying and weeping. All night long the gale raged, while the seas mounted higher.

At half past 5 Saturday morning there was one particularly violent fury and then the ship began to heel. In but a moment came an answer from the Watson. In three hours the Watson was standing by, but the sea was still so heavy that it took two hours longer to pass a cable on board.

Bearing the marks of the same gale, the lumber steamer Temple E. Dorr, bound laden for Los Angeles harbor, also put in here today. For an hour she had stood on her beam ends, losing 200,000 feet of lumber from her deckload, nearly half her cargo.

Her mainmast was broken, her main rigging swept overboard and her deck stanchions smashed by the seas.

Mrs. A. E. Watts of San Diego, 70 odd years old, was washed out of her berth and bruised on the back, but her injuries are said not to be serious.

Gibson Indicted for Murder of Woman

MIDDLETON, N. Y., Oct. 22.—Dutton W. Gibson, a New York lawyer, was indicted by the Orange County grand jury today on a charge of murder in the first degree. He is accused of killing his client, Mrs. Rosa Monchik Babo. He probably will be brought to trial in December.

Militia Takes Possession Of Racetrack; Women Held

PORTER Ind. Oct. 22.—Two companies of Indiana militia took possession of the Mineral Springs race track this afternoon under orders from Governor Marshall to stop gambling and prevent races from being run. The soldiers kept everyone from entering and those who were within the enclosure were held. This was the first time since 1908 that the track has been closed.

Philippine Pirates Again Active in Sulu Waters

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Fifty pirates have been drawn by Collector of Customs J. S. Stanley. The cutter will carry two Hotchkiss rapid guns and two motor boats to be carried on davits amidships. The motorboats are intended for use in the pursuit of the buccanniers when they seek to escape by sailing their light craft over reefs that cannot be crossed by larger vessels.

TURKS FLEE BEFORE GREEKS

1,000,000 Cartridges Left Behind by Panic-Stricken Soldiers

20,000 Warriors of Sultan Are Said to Have Been Captured

ATHENS, Oct. 22.—The Turkish army is fleeing in panic from Dhis-kata, on the way to the Turkish town of Servia, in the north, according to semi-official statements issued here today. The Greek troops are said to be pursuing them vigorously.

When the Turks precipitately abandoned the town of Elasoona, it is said, they left behind them their staff maps and a million cartridges.

The total losses of the Greeks during the first day's engagement are given as one captain, two sub-lieutenants and nineteen men killed and 75 wounded.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—The armies of Servia, Bulgaria and Greece continued today to clear the way to their main objective points, the Turkish fortresses of Uskup, Adrianople and Servia, the last of these a Turkish town on the Greek frontier.

Greek armies have crossed the Turkish frontier. In Epikos, on the west, they have occupied the heights of Grimbove, while at the eastern end they are pursuing the Turkish troops to their base at the town of Servia, where an important engagement is expected to be fought. The taking of the town by the Greeks would carry them appreciably nearer to the Monastir and Salonika roads.

The Servians are probably doing the hardest fighting at the present moment. Operating toward Uskup and Prishtina, farther north in the district of Novi-pazar, they have to contend not only against Turkish regulars, but also against the Arnauts, fierce Albanian tribesmen. One of their armies has advanced as far as the city of Kuananov, the principal town between the Servian frontier and Uskup.

The Servians have secured possession of the mountain pass leading to Prishtina.

Military authorities suggest that King Ferdinand's Bulgarians will not attempt to rush the fortress of Adrianople, but will mask it and move round to the east or the west. The reported intention of the Bulgarian army to pass by Adrianople and to strike direct for Constantinople is dismissed as impracticable by military men. The distance is the same as that from Dulay to Mukden in Manchuria, which took the Japanese army a year to cover.

GREEKS CROSS FRONTIER

LONDON, Oct. 22.—Greek troops were landed today at Katarina on Turkish territory, in the Gulf of Salonika and about 70 miles from the fortress, according to a news agency dispatch from Constantinople.

200 SOLDIERS KILLED

BERLIN, Oct. 22.—Two hundred Turkish soldiers were killed and as many more seriously injured by the derailing of a military train on the railroad from Smyrna to Aidin, it is said, in a special dispatch from Constantinople.

ROOSEVELT REACHES HOME

Walks Unassisted From Car to Auto; Waves to Crowd at Station

Stands Trip Well, but Retires to Bed on Reaching Sagamore Hill

OYSTER BAY, Oct. 22.—The gates at Sagamore Hill were barred this afternoon and no one was permitted to enter the grounds. Guards at the principal entrance told all comers that the colonel's physicians had given orders to exclude everyone.

STOSSET, L. I., Oct. 22.—Theodore Roosevelt and party arrived here at 9:30 this morning. This place is four miles south of Oyster Bay and the train was routed thither in order to avoid any crowd. Only a handful of persons were on hand when the colonel stepped from his car and walked unassisted to an automobile. He was driven immediately to Sagamore Hill.

The colonel was carefully wrapped up before he got into the automobile and wore the heavy army overcoat with the bullet hole in it.

"I am feeling just fine," said the colonel, as he waved his hand to the small crowd.

To the town folks at Oyster Bay, who were a bit surprised at not seeing Roosevelt at the station, the following message was sent by his physicians:

Colonel Roosevelt has stood the journey well, but we believe him in no condition to stand the excitement of receiving his many friends at Oyster Bay. He deeply appreciates their interest in his welfare.

GOES TO BED

When he arrived at Sagamore Hill the colonel's wound was dressed and he went to bed at once, with instructions to remain quiet all day. The physicians said the wound showed no ill effects of the trip.

After he was attended by the doctors George E. Roosevelt said this morning:

"Colonel Roosevelt requires a week of absolute rest. If he has this rest he possibly will be able to make his Machine Crashes Through Railing and Drops Twenty-five Feet.

PUEBLO, Colo., Oct. 22.—Charles Buck, an owner of the Missouri Pacific Railroad at Nyberg, Colo., was instantly killed, Epp Nesbitt of Pueblo was probably fatally injured and John Bowen, proprietor of a general store at Nyberg, slightly injured in an automobile accident. The car was going at a high rate of speed when it crashed through the railing of a bridge over Six Mile Creek and plunged 25 feet into the bed of the creek. Buck and Nesbitt were buried under the heavy car, but Bowen fell clear of the wreckage. Buck was dead when removed from under the car. Nesbitt was brought to a hospital here and has been unconscious for several hours.

JACK JOHNSON IS SHOT BY WOMAN

U. S. Marshals Seek Entertainer Who Fired Bullet Into Foot

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—Search was made in Jack Johnson's cafe early today by deputy United States marshals for a colored woman employed in the place as an entertainer, who is said to have shot the pugilist in the foot several days ago.

A rumor spread through the city last Thursday night that Johnson had been shot, and the government officers declare that it was true. The woman, they say, did the shooting. The shooting is said to have taken place in a quarrel and the pugilist is said to have pledged everyone in the place to secrecy. Johnson denies the report.

The federal grand jury began today its investigation of charges that Johnson violated the Mann law in his relations with Lucille Cameron, a 19-year-old white girl.

PLEADS WITH GIRL

Mrs. Cameron, 19-year-old of Minneapolis, Minn., and Lucille, who has been held in the city hall in default of $25,000 bonds were among the witnesses. The mother again pleaded with the girl to give up the negro champion and also to tell the jurors all she could regarding her relations with the negro.

"Please, my dear, brace up and tell all you know," she is said to have begged of her daughter. "There still is a chance for you."

"Jack" Curley, fight promoter, who was wanted in connection with the case, appeared at the federal building and said he was ready to tell all he knew about the affair. Search was made for him yesterday but he could not be located. Curley said that Johnson and the Cameron girl had been at his home only twice. The first time was to meet her mother, he said, and the other time when the champion came to ask him to look after his proposed fights in Australia.

Lucille will, according to present plan, enter the jury room and tell the details of her relations with the negro immediately after her mother has completed her testimony.

Several Points Scored by Attorneys of Accused Man

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The defense in the trial of Police Lieutenant Charles F. Becker, charged with the murder of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, rested its case a few moments after noon today without calling Becker to the stand. Justice Goff declined to let the defense rest and reopened the case without motion from counsel in order to take further testimony along the line of the alleged conspiracy against Becker by Rose, Webber, Vallon and Scheppe. "Jack" Sullivan was recalled by the court.

When court conveyed John F. McIntyre, Becker's lawyer, produced in evidence the record of the Kings county court showing that Morris Luban had been convicted of perjury in 1911 and had served seven years in the penitentiary. Luban, who testified for the state that he was an eyewitness of the Rosenthal shooting, swore that he had never been convicted of crime. Assistant District Attorney Moss told the court that Luban had appeared in the courtroom and was now out on bail.

WEBBER'S STORY DENIED.

John F. Webber, a theatrical manager, testified that he had dinner with Becker on July 6 and was with him from 6:30 until 9 p. m. Webber had testified that Becker told him that night that he wanted to "croak Rosenthal."

Webber testified that he entered and left the restaurant with Becker and that Becker said nothing to Webber. Charles E. Foy, a policeman, testified that he was called to the Rosenthal home last February by Mrs. Rosenthal to elect Webber and Vallon. The witness testified Webber told him that Rosenthal had been responsible for breaking his law.

"I met Jack Rose, too, on July 11 or 12, on the street at 2:30 in the morning," Foy said. "And Rose said to me, 'You're a pretty good friend of Herman Rosenthal, aren't you?' I said I knew Rosenthal and Rose then said, 'Well, you'd better tell Rosenthal to quit talking about me and keep his mouth shut or I will shut it so he'll never open it again.'"

On cross-examination Foy said when he was called to Mayor Gaynor's office to tell what he knew about the murder he did not mention Rose's threat because the mayor "told me he wanted me to answer the questions he put to me. I did and only that."

DIDN'T LIKE ATTITUDE.

The witness said he did not tell the district attorney "because I did not like his attitude," adding:

"If I seemed to want the public to believe the whole police department was in cahoots with the murderers," several witnesses testified to Becker.

'FINISH JOB' SAYS DYING WOMAN

Murderer Admits He Did by Putting Second Shot in Prostrate Form

Former Oaklander Calls Up Police and Tells of Killing Spouse

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 22.—Mrs. Alice Currier, 56 years old, was shot twice and almost instantly killed by her husband, George A. Currier, a watchman, in the kitchen of their home, 1354 Eighth avenue, in the Sunset district, at 9:45 o'clock this morning. The tragedy was accompanied by several dramatic incidents, not the least of which was the telephoning of Currier to police headquarters and his confession over the wire that he had killed his spouse.

Although he claims that self-defense led to the slaying, he admits that when his wife lay with her life blood ebbing away on the floor and sarcastically told him that he had "better finish the job," put another bullet into her prostrate form, causing almost instant death.

SLAYS WOMAN IN CROWDED CAFE

Jealous Suitor Stabs His Sweetheart, Then Kills Self

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 22.—Mrs. Anna O'Donnell was stabbed to death by Leonardo Morreale in a down town cafe last night while the room was crowded with men and women. Morreale then plunged the knife into his own heart and fell dead.

Morreale recently came here from Dayton, Ohio, and became acquainted with Mrs. O'Donnell shortly after her husband went to San Diego, Cal., where he intended to start in business.

A letter in Morreale's pocket addressed to a brother in New York showed that Morreale was consumed with jealousy and hatred that another man had supplanted him in the affections of Mrs. O'Donnell. Identification of the woman was made today.

RELIOT, Wis., Oct. 22.—Clad only in pajamas and wearing a nightgown, Anna Thornton of Redford, Mass., a co-ed at Reliot College, routed a burglar whom she found in her room.

The young co-ed chased the intruder through the park and inflicted several vicious threats which elicited yells of pain from the fleeing thief, and caused him to drop her victim, which he had stolen. When Miss Thornton returned to her quarters, the other co-eds were organizing a peace to go to her assistance.

LIVESTOCK CASES CALLED FOR HEARING

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 22.—After lying dormant for five years, thirty-one cases against the Southern Pacific railroad, charging a violation of the law which makes it an offense to keep live stock more than 28 hours in a car, were brought to trial in the Federal court here today. Many of the witnesses are dead, while others have left the State, but District Attorney McNab felt it his duty to proceed and all the actions are being tried together.

Assistant United States Attorney Selva appeared for the government, and Attorneys Knight and Hegerly for the corporation.

For The Nervous Woman,

Or the woman who experiences hot flashes nothing is so good to soothe, quiet and calm the nervous system as a pure glyceric extract of native medicinal plants, and made without alcohol, which has been sold by druggists for the past forty years, and most favorably known as Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. In younger years some women suffer from dizziness, or fainting spells, hysteria, headache, bearing-down feelings and pain. All these symptoms of irregularity and female disturbance are relieved by the use of this famous "Prescription" of Doctor Pierce.

As a powerful, invigorating tonic "Favorite Prescription" imparts strength to the whole system, and in particular to the organs distinctly feminine. For over-worked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," house-keepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, it is an excellent appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

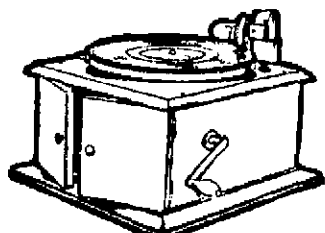

"My disease was called retroversion," writes Mrs. Lydia McDonald, of Meadville, Mich. "I had nervousness and was very weak. Then I had inflammation and the doctor said I had a floating kidney. I doctored seven months with the doctor's medicine, but it did me no good. After taking three bottles of Dr. Pierce's medicine I have not had any nervous chills or weak spells. I am better than for years."

My daughter is now taking the "Prescription" and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, also the "Pellets" for nervousness and weak, tired feeling. These remedies have helped her ever so much in a short time. We have great faith in your medicines for female troubles."

Mrs. McDonald. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets induce mild natural bowel movement.

AD MEN HEAR PRACTICAL TALK ON STEREOTYPING

Emil Dengel Tells of the Mechanical Side of Newspaper

Today the weekly luncheon of the Oakland Advertising Association was held at the banquet room of the Y. M. C. A., Twenty-first and Telegraph avenue. Interest is increasing and attendance growing, owing to the educational features embodied in the programs arranged at these luncheons.

The organization is not a gathering of "advertising sellers" or "retainers of copy." The meetings are devoted exclusively to talks, mostly illustrated by experienced speakers on various forms of publicity, what results may be expected from advertising in these various forms, the composition of good "ad copy"—interesting, suggestive and amusing experiences from the standpoint of the advertiser who pays for advertising space. Many of the leading merchants and business men of the city are regular attendants at these weekly luncheons.

Following a good lunch, those present today heard a talk by Emil Dengel, manager of the stereotyping department of one of the big San Francisco dailies. The stereotyping process of a big newspaper is one of unusual interest to the public at large, and the speaker on today's program, having a long and interesting story, was able to tell the life of an illustrated ad, from the time it enters the business office until the plates are cast before being placed on the mammoth presses, producing papers at incredible speed.

PRACTICAL HINTS.
In the course of his remarks Dengel said that he desired simply to give some practical hints that might be of advantage in enabling the ad writer to get closer in touch with the mechanical end of a newspaper.

He emphasized the fact that both compositor and publisher should be given plenty of time to set copy and that distortions should always be carefully written. He said that some ad writers too often had the opinion that the same compositor day after day would set the ad. This, he pointed out, was not a fact because while today a certain compositor might set a certain house, he might not again work on similar copy for weeks. He advised ad writers to use a set of stereo cuts and matrices containing halftones, as it was often impossible to get good, clear printing from such material. Whenever possible, original cuts should be used. He was especially emphatic in his declaration that advertisers should see to it that the composing room was allowed ample time in which to set up a display ad and for making corrections.

Some ad writers, he said, when they furnish their original copy are not quite clear in their own minds just what they want and this results in an almost irreparable mistake. He was especially emphatic in an evening paper, where haste is much more demanded than in a morning paper, good results cannot be obtained and the advertiser is often dissatisfied because his advertisement does not have the effect he desired.

NEED OF PROMPTNESS.
He cautioned ad writers not to leave anything up to the compositor, as is often done, but for them themselves to devote more time and care in preparing their original copy. This might perhaps seem a needless repetition of what has been said, but he pointed out that in a baseball game, or to cut short a 14-course luncheon. From his own experience in the mechanical end of a paper, he had become thoroughly convinced that if advertisements and writers got closer in touch with the composing room, the stereotyping room and the press room, and familiarized themselves with the mechanical problems and difficulties they would make the work easier for themselves and the business manager of the paper would more often be in a pleasant mood.

William Day Simonds spoke of advertising as the right arm of business, next to the elimination of advertising, the distance salesmanship cults for utmost skill in advertising. To the prospective buyer, first impressions count for a great deal. A well groomed advertisement, in fact, makes an equally pleasing impression as a well groomed and competent salesman.

ENGINEER TESTIFIES IN DALTON LAWSUIT

As a witness called by the plaintiff, Ross Morgan, a civil engineer, testified today in the case of Henry Dalton & Sons against the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railway that he had been present at the Dalton works last July when John Ferrin, a railway employee, had appeared with a gang of men and taken possession of a strip of land upon which the Daltons sought to move a building. The strip is under controversy, with both parties to the suit claiming ownership with clear title. Morgan was on the stand most of yesterday and is still under examination by attorneys for plaintiff.

The Rev. Edgar P. Gee in his sermon will refer to the life and work of Dr. Akerly.

TO MAKE ATTACK ON VERA CRUZ

Foreign Consuls Warned by Diaz of the Coming Conflict.

VERA CRUZ, Mexico, Oct. 22.—A demand for the surrender of the city was sent yesterday by General Beltran, the commander of the federal troops. The letter was brought to the rebel lines by Captain Limon and was couched in most polite terms, concluding with the intimation that if the rebels did not surrender duty would oblige the federal commander to use force.

General Felix Diaz, replying to the note, thanked General Beltran and said he was sorry the situation would compel him to offer the city before. At the same time he asked General Beltran to fix the longest possible time for the evacuation of the city by the non-combatants.

General Diaz then sent copies of both communications to the foreign consuls, asking that foreigners in the city should make an inventory of the effects left behind when they moved out and as promising to indemnify them as soon as possible for the damage that might be entailed by the detail.

ASSURES UNITED STATES.
General Diaz also adds in the communication to Captain Hughes, commander of the United States cruiser Des Moines, saying that he would conduct the situation according to international law and specifically saying "it is unnecessary to denigrate American marines on my account."

The federal commander also addressed the American consul, saying: "I shall not attack the city before the lapse of 24 hours and during that time Americans should seek safety."

General Diaz has since asked General Beltran to name the time and place at which non-combatants could pass both lines.

SOUNDS WARNING.
Captain Hughes then warned the commodore that any breach of his promise would be considered a hostile act toward the United States.

Commodore Azueta will keep the guns of his vessels trained on the island of Ulula in order to prevent prisoners escaping from the jail. When the city is taken, the zone for the shelter of foreigners, the warehouses are to be placed under command of Captain Hughes. The Des Moines is to be moved to this wharf and such measures as are considered necessary will be taken for the protection of foreign interests. Admission to the zone will be obtained by means of a card from one of the foreign consulates.

CLEVER RUSE FREES ACCUSED SHOPLIFTER

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 22.—By a bold and clever move on the part of a friend on the outside, Nellie Bennett, charged with shoplifting, was freed today by Police Judge Shortall. Joseph Rock, deputy bond and warrant clerk, received a phone message ostensibly from the White House, which he turned over to Assistant Attorney J. D. Rutledge, who heard a voice over the wire as follows:

"This is the White House. We don't want to prosecute Nellie Bennett, charged with petty larceny, and would like to have the case dismissed."

Rutledge informed Police Judge Shortall in open court and with the consent of Assistant District Attorney Reaney, the young girl was allowed to go. A few moments later Vice-President D. G. Davis of the White House and Detective Goughran, who arrested the girl, finding a large pocket in her skirt used for pilfering purposes, appeared ready to prosecute. Now there is a new war—between the White House and the police are looking for the owner of the mysterious voice on the telephone.

PERMIT FOR HAY AND COAL STORING

George Hill was denied permission by the council to construct a building at the corner of East 10th and Forty-fifth streets for storing hay and coal, with the stipulation that no more than 20 tons of hay be stored there at one time. This is in accordance with the city ordinance governing the same, though there was a controversy over whether the ordinance meant a building of 20 tons capacity or 20 tons of hay.

This is an improvement marketed exclusively by us and represents the greatest advance made in years toward the perfection in fit and comfort so sorely needed in overcoat collars. Style also is improved as a result of perfect fit.

Young Men's Overcoats

A Special Value, featured this week, is a line of dark oxford gray, heavy-weight herringbones, of rough texture with plaid backs. The "Up or Down" Collar completes the perfections of these exceptional coats which are full-length and are carried in sizes 34 to 37. The worth of our higher grades is exemplified in these coats at $15.

Boys' Long Overcoats

For ages 8 to 18 we have a particularly complete line of big, roomy Overcoats in ankle lengths, plenty large enough to last a growing boy for several seasons. The fabrics are notable for their beauty and wearing qualities combined—grays and browns are most prevalent, prices ranging from $5 TO $15.

Children's Overcoats

Even the coats for children of 2 to 7 years are equipped with our "Up or Down" Collar. In every other respect, also, they are just like our best coats for grown-ups. Equally suitable for small boys or girls. Priced from $5 TO $10.

Girls' and Misses' Coats

No button bedecked frivolities are available here. Ours are all service coats, made full length and with box backs, and completed with our "Up or Down" Collar. Gray and brown mixed men's wear materials are priced at $7.50 AND $8.50.

LIVELY SESSION IS DUE TODAY

Merchants' Exchange Plans to Settle Matter of Land
Show.

Interest is keen over the meeting of the Oakland Merchants' Exchange to be held this afternoon at the exchange's headquarters at Twelfth and Broadway. It is expected that the question of sending an exhibit from this county to the Chicago land show will be threshed out and as sentiment is evenly divided for and against the proposition, it is not unlikely that a lively discussion will enliven the proceedings.

Theodore Gier, in speaking of the present state of affairs, said this morning: "It is preposterous to say that the Omaha land show was not a success, as have been all affairs of that class previous to October, 1911. Every show we have attended has been well conducted and won a credit to the men in charge of them. Unfortunately, however, we are not able to get the finances necessary for such shows from the county but I think that with a little persistence we can bring this about. I believe that the affair will be peacefully settled at this afternoon's meeting."

The commission was reorganized with a membership of seven in place of three, July 1 of this year, and Paul Goldsmith was made secretary by the board of supervisors without a vote. The old commission was made up by Wilbur Walker, secretary; Theodore Gier and Frank Leach, Jr., ex-officio members, and the new board, with Mayor Mott of Oakland, A. P. Sire of Alameda, M. G. Callaghan of Livermore and Wells Drury of Berkeley.

Walker, while managing the old board, was secretary of the Merchants' Exchange, a position which he now holds. While absent in Omaha he had a substitute attend to his duties in the Merchants' Exchange and charged the account to the county, a sum of $25, which the district attorney's office refused to sanction.

THREATENED MURDER, IS CHARGE OF WIFE

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 22.—In an action for threatened murder, Mrs. Pauline Erickson charges her husband, Gustave Erickson, with cruelty and tells of an incident when he administered medicine to her. She says that she was ill from a cold and that Erickson gave her something from a bottle. When she had taken it, she says, she felt much worse and was dazed.

The next day when she questioned her husband he said he told her if she had him arrested or if she took the "medicine" to a doctor, he would murder her and the physician in the courtroom. The couple were only married last December.

WOMAN GIVEN BACK ALL HER STOLEN JEWELS

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 22.—Mrs. Geo. Rudolph attempted suicide at 1 a. m. Monday, and at the same time mixed 21,000 worth of jewels from her person. The police were notified and have been searching for the jewels. This morning a man entered Mrs. Rudolph's home, 546 Oak street, informed her that he had a surprise for her, handed her a package containing every one of her valuables and disappeared.

RETURNED TO PRISON.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 22.—Frank Wahn, the escaped convict from the Nevada penitentiary, was taken back to prison this morning. He was captured here Saturday by Detective O'Connell.

SORRY NOW HE SHOT COLONEL

John Schrank Tells a Fellow Prisoner He Regrets Wounding Roosevelt.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 22.—John Schrank has arrived at the stage of being sorry for his attempt upon the life of Colonel Roosevelt, according to the statements today of two prisoners at the county jail. John Frey, accused of wife murder, and Frank Clanton, a negro prisoner, have been more or less associated with Schrank during the last week.

Frey has played checkers with Schrank and during the course of a conversation Schrank, according to Frey, said he was sorry he shot Roosevelt. "I considered it my duty at the time I fired the bullet to rid the country of a third-termer," Schrank is alleged to have told Frey, and added: "But I am sorry now."

Frey believes Schrank to be perfectly sane.

HUSBAND CRUEL, IS CHARGE OF WOMAN

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 22.—Mrs. Mary J. Johnson, wife of a train conductor, put up with many indignities at the hands of her spouse, according to her divorce complaint filed today, but finally when she returned home and he allowed a pet dog to sleep upon her couch, she rebelled. She asserts further that he has repeatedly struck her in the face, and that as the result of his treatment she has been forced to undergo an operation. She names an affinity in the person of Mathilde Richards of San Jose.

HARVEST BALL IS PLANNED BY O.E.S.

Members of Oak Leaf Chapter
Plan for Unique Affair.

The members of Oak Leaf Chapter No. 8, Order of the Eastern Star, are planning an affair in the form of a grand harvest ball to be held at Scottish Rite Cathedral, Friday evening, October 25. The ball is to be of the kind our forefathers enjoyed one hundred years ago, the women appearing in calico gowns and the men in overalls. Any guest appearing in other garb will be liable to a fine.

The committee of arrangements comprises G. W. Bacon, chairman; Kate C. Morris, F. D. Dolber, E. F. Hughes, Mrs. G. Linaker, B. O. Johnson and A. S. Ziegler.

The hall is to be decorated in the fashion of a hundred years ago and the selections of the orchestra will include some of the old-time dance music. The Virginia reel, minuet and quadrilles will be the rule and the affair promises to be one of the most enjoyable ever given under the auspices of the Eastern Star.

BURGLAR LEAVES FINGER IN SAFE—IDENTIFIED

BRENE, Oct. 22.—Because a finger stuck in the door of a safe in a store owned by Friedrich Hoppe when he applied for credit, a burglar was identified. The finger was now awaiting sentence for burglary. Hoppe, after tilting the safe, accidentally closed the door on his little finger.

FAMOUS DOUBLE
BILL WELL SONG

The Lambardi Singers Please Large Audience in 'Cavallera' and 'Pagliacci.'

The second performance of the Pacific Coast Grand Opera Company at the Macdonough theater last night was a revival of that ever popular and attractive double bill, Cavallera and Pagliacci, in which practically the whole company appeared. In Cavallera, the part of Santuzza was admirably sung by Mme. Martini, who is one of the stars of the company, and who shared the honors with Tarquini during the San Francisco season, when her Santuzza was compared with that of Caruso. The part of Turiddu was entrusted to Giuseppe Agostini, the popular tenor well known throughout California on account of his success in the four previous engagements he had before the fire of 1906. Agostini is absolutely one of the greatest Turiddu on the stage. So great is he that Mascagni himself, when engaged last spring to give two weeks of Cavallera in London, among all the available Turiddu of the world, selected Agostini for the part of Turiddu. Mme. Planchini, who was Miss Boston, a San Francisco girl, sang the part of Lola, and Giavacchini the part of Alfio.

No less strong was the cast of Pagliacci, where the tenor soloist of the company, Giuseppe Rossi, from La Scala of Milan, appeared in the tenor part of Canio, in which he created a sensation in San Francisco. Tenor, the clown, served to introduce one of the funniest of the company, Giuseppe Giardini, while the part of Nedda was sung by Miss Agostini, and the part of the bartender was sung by Miss Giardini.

Three two splendid casts, together with the orchestra, under the direction of Bagnoli, kept a crowded house veritably on its toes.

CARELESS NURSE
LOSES MEMORY

Awakens After 24 Hours of Unconsciousness; Mistake Kills Patient.

YONKERS, N. Y., Oct. 22.—Florence Harris, a nurse, who by mistake administered acid instead of salts, causing the death of Mrs. Abraham Haight, a patient at the Homeopathy Hospital, awoke yesterday after 24 hours of unconsciousness, due to a collapse upon realizing her error.

Physicians say the nurse appears to have lost all recollection of what took place while caring for Mrs. Haight. Upon awakening, Miss Harris asked for a drink of water. She recognized several nurses, but greatly to the surprise of the physicians, did not refer to her mistake. She was very weak and talked little.

The doctors decided not to question her regarding the mistake, fearing any mention of the affair would bring a second collapse. The authorities have not yet learned how the acid came to be in the medicine cabinet next to the salts.

OPPOSE PASSAGE OF AMENDMENT NO. 7

At a joint meeting of the Young Men's and Young Women's Bible classes of Shattuck Avenue M. E. church on Sunday, resolutions were adopted condemning the proposition to reopen racetrack gambling in California, as follows:

"Whereas, at the general election to be held in California on Tuesday, November 5th, 1912, a proposed amendment to the state constitution is to be submitted to the voters, designated on the ballot as amendment No. 7, having for its purpose the legalizing of racetrack gambling in California, and

"Whereas, the residents of the San Francisco bay district had for years the opportunity of seeing the effect of race-track gambling and found it demoralizing in the extreme to thousands of people, both men and women, resulting in financial embarrassment, undermining of character, and destroying the finer instincts of manhood and womanhood, and

"Whereas, the past eighteen months or thereabouts, there has been on the statute books of the state a law absolutely prohibiting betting on races, which law has been beneficial, and thoroughly satisfactory to everyone having the best interests of the state at heart, therefore, be it

"Resolved, that we, the members of the Barack and Philanthropic Bible classes of Shattuck Avenue M. E. church, register our emphatic protest against said amendment No. 7, believing that its adoption would be a blow to the character of our citizenship, and be it further

"Resolved, that we, as class organizations and as individuals, we pledge ourselves to do all in our power to arouse the voters of our bay district to oppose said amendment, and to communicate at once with other similar organizations to take the same action in order that the importance of a Presidential election shall not overshadow this matter which is so tremendously important to the future of our state."

The African in the Woodpile.

Discussing the annexation amendment, the San Francisco Examiner says:

"Concerning the possible infliction of some of one city's bonded debt on any community joining it in consolidation, the words of the amendment are clear that this would be impossible. A bond of any city not sold at the time of consolidation would cease to exist, and every bond sold previous to consolidation would be a burden only on the city which authorized its sale."

This admission is important. It means that the $57,000,000 bonds which San Francisco has authorized, but which have not been issued and sold would be rendered void by annexation.

Thus the bonds voted for bringing in Hetch-Hetchy water from the Sierra Nevada would be made waste paper, and the way would be cleared for a bond issue to purchase the Spring Valley plant. In getting rid of her huge authorized bonded debt, San Francisco would likewise get rid of the Hetch-Hetchy project, which is precisely what Spring Valley wants.

Is it not surprising that a number of capitalists heavily interested in Spring Valley are prominently identified with the Greater San Francisco organization. For them annexation paves the way for the sale of the Spring Valley plant to the city.

Hetch-Hetchy water is one of the arguments Spring Valley's agents have been making to people on this side of the bay. These emissaries have falsely represented that a vote for annexation was a vote to get Hetch-Hetchy water without paying for it. Now we see that annexation will dissolve the Hetch-Hetchy project into thin air, and establish the Spring Valley monopoly more firmly than it has ever been. If water is to be brought from the mountains new bonds must be authorized to pay the expense. The new territory annexed will be taxed to pay the principal and interest of these bonds.

If bonds are issued to acquire the Spring Valley plant all property within the limits of the consolidated city will be taxed to redeem the bonds and pay interest on them till they are redeemed. Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda, Richmond, Albany, Piedmont and Emeryville are now supplied by a private plant. The Spring Valley Company has no distributing system on this side of the bay, and after supplying San Francisco there will be no water left from Spring Valley sources to supply people on this side of the bay.

Therefore the purchase of the Spring Valley plant (in the event of annexation) would tax property in Oakland and her neighboring cities to acquire a water plant solely for the use of San Francisco. Furthermore, it would reduce the Hetch-Hetchy project to a remote possibility; it would put mountain water so far into the future that no man can tell when it would become a realization.

When it is simmered down, the appeal for annexation resolves itself into an invitation to the people of the eastern shore to allow themselves to be taxed to buy a water supply for San Francisco; meanwhile they would be compelled to go on buying their own water from the Peoples Water Company.

In other aspects, the annexation project is equally hopeless so far as the people on this side of the bay are concerned. San Francisco has projected a civic center scheme that will cost many millions. Bonds partially to carry out this project have been authorized, but not issued. The civic center bonds authorized but not issued would go into the discard along with the Hetch-Hetchy bonds, and carrying out the civic center idea would involve taxing the annexed territory to pay for it. An inviting prospect, truly. San Francisco, being the largest unit in the aggregation, could outvote the annexed municipalities and would doubtless cheerfully do so when she would get the exclusive advantage and share the expense with her neighbors.

And that about sums up the true inwardness of the annexation scheme.

Perkins on Tweedledee and Tweedledum

George W. Perkins, who has figured as the Colonel's angel, begins to look very much like a Jonah. He wishes to separate the contributions he has individually made to the Bull Moose campaign fund from the Harvester Trust. But such a separation cannot be made until Perkins separates himself from the trust of which he is the directing head.

Perkins is not only the head of the Harvester Trust, but he is a director of the Steel Trust and twenty-six other large corporations wearing the complexion and having the affiliations of trusts. "But I gave the money out of my own pocket," he insists. Assuming that he did, he is a trust organizer and has amassed an enormous fortune by his trust operations.

The point is that he is so eager to see Roosevelt elected President that he will spend large sums to accomplish that result. Perkins is not spending his money lavishly to elect a President who will injure his trust enterprises.

The money may be his own in the sense that it is not charged up to corporation account, but it is trust money nevertheless. It is the profit of trust operations, and is the fruit of the very system that the people of the United States are determined to break up. Viewed in their proper aspect, it does not make a particle of difference whether Perkins charged his contributions to the various trust organizations with which he is identified or gave the money out of his own pocket. He is serving the same interests in either case.

He certainly cannot expect any sane man to believe that he is doing something that will be inimical to the profit and security of the trust corporations he represents. If he were altruistic enough to do such a thing his business associates would soon cast him out as a madman or an enemy. It is hopeless to expect that men who organize and operate trusts will point the way to freedom from trust domination, or that competition can be freed by following the lead of men who have amassed swollen fortunes by stifling competition.

Perkins is not better than his business nor are his ideals any higher than those of his business associates. It is a cheeky proposition for him to demand that his contributions be separated from the trust activities, and that his activities be separated from his trust activities. He is one and inseparable, and if his moral sense were not so completely blunted he would perceive the fact. His connection with trusts and the deduction that is legitimately to be drawn from that connection is not altered in the slightest degree by the disclaimer Perkins has said about him, whether true or false. The facts that stand out undisputed and undeniable are that Perkins is a director in certain large trust organizations and has at the same time a heavy contribution to Roosevelt's campaign fund. He is likewise an active manager of that campaign. Perkins is one of the largest and most astute trust operators in the country. It was his ability and activity in this direction that raised him from an obscure and humble position to be forty or fifty times a millionaire. Can such a man be trusted to pick out a President for the American people, especially when trust exactions and trust control are the vital issues of the campaign? Calling Mr. Hilles a liar will not answer this question, which must be answered in the negative if the trust system is to be destroyed and competition restored to its former freedom.

Latest Attempt to Mislead Voters.

Any tyro in the science of law ought to know that no municipal charter can amend a State Constitution. But the members of the legal fraternity employed by the Greater San Francisco Consolidation Association to expound and defend the initiative amendment to Section 7 of Article XI of the State Constitution have publicly and unblushingly declared, in order to induce citizens to vote for it, that the disposition of the $57,374,700 authorized but unissued portion of San Francisco's total authorized bond indebtedness of $84,981,000, will be determined by the charter framed for the new consolidated city and county should the initiative amendment be adopted by the voters of the State and the territory in the four contiguous counties which San Francisco desires to grab be forced to consolidate with it through the coercion and intimidation of its inhabitants or the more devious method of colonization which that city will have no scruples about employing to accomplish its purpose. In other words, an attempt is made to convey the impression to the minds of unthinking citizens that a charter may be framed providing that San Francisco shall be held responsible for the entire authorized bond indebtedness of $84,981,000 whether sold or unissued. Either these supposed-to-be learned gentlemen are totally ignorant of the fundamental principles of constitutional law, or assume that they can deceive the lay audiences they address into the belief that a charter provision can override or amend the constitution and thus secure their support to the initiative amendment. Either horn of the dilemma created by these pettifoggers exposes them to ridicule and contempt.

The initiative amendment specifically provides that the "new consolidated government shall be liable for all the existing debts and liabilities of any municipal corporation merged therein." In other words, the existing debts and liabilities, embracing contracts, and a multitude of other forms of obligations, become a common charge against all parts of the new consolidation as soon as the merger is accomplished. And authorized but unissued bonds prior to the merger may immediately thereafter be made a liability in common by the simple act of sale.

The only exception as to this general responsibility of the consolidated city is that relating to outstanding bonds at the time of the merger, which is thus expressed in the language of the amendment: "But provision shall be made for the payment of all outstanding bonds of such municipalities respectively by taxes levied only upon property assessable therefor and situate at the time of the levy within the territory of such municipalities respectively as such territory existed at the time of such consolidation."

If the initiative amendment is adopted no charter can ever be framed and put into effect which attempts to modify or alter in the slightest degree these constitutional provisions, and any argument advanced to the contrary must be attributed to a dishonest intent to deceive those who are not supposed to have any knowledge of law.

Rowell, in his Fresno Republican, deprecates the defection of Controller Nye. The reason given by Nye is the Bull Moose proposition to degrade courts and recall judicial decisions. Rowell says that Charles S. Wheeler was also opposed to these things, but has changed his mind and in effect requests Mr. Nye to let Wheeler also change his mind for him.

Councilman Pardee has written from Castle Crags for a thirty days' leave of absence on account of illness. The law of the city says that any official absenting himself for thirty days without permission is liable to have his office declared vacant. Captain E. F. The Oakland team is not making a very great success in Los Angeles. Yesterday the second game of the series was played and the Angels waxed the visitors from start to finish.

Among the passengers on the Overland train yesterday were Senator Leland Stanford, Mrs. Stanford and H. C. Nash, the Senator's private secretary. The Senator has been in Alameda-Bain for the last few months, taking the waters. He was met at Winnemucca by Stephen T. Gage and Colonel Creed Haymond. At Port Costa A. N. Towne joined the party, and at the Sixteenth-street station Colonel Charles F. Crocker welcomed Colonel Stanford home.

For some time past the cardrivers on the Fourteenth-street line have been shirking their work. After dark they have been in the habit of only taking their cars as far as the Peralta-street switch, on Sixteenth street, instead of going to the depot.

It was rumored today that W. H. Meade had sold his interest in the Hayward electric road to the Pacific Improvement Company, thus giving the Southern Pacific control of the road.

EXPORT TRADE UNDER EYE OF GOVERNMENT

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—The Latin-American division of the state department is observing closely export trade from the United States to South American countries on the Pacific coast, with a view to determining the probable volume of such traffic through the Panama canal. The value of goods exported to the countries along the west coast of South America last year was $45,449,141, of which Chile took about 11 per cent, Peru 24 per cent, and Ecuador the remainder.

Five-sevenths of the cotton cloth exported to South America went to countries which would be directly affected by the Panama canal.

SCHWERIN DENIES PACIFIC MAIL SALE

Steamship Magnate Arrives Home; Says Canal Law Is Drastic.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 22.—R. P. Schwerin, vice-president and general manager of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, who has been absent for the last five months returned home on the Overland Limited yesterday afternoon with the announcement that no efforts had been made to sell the company and no one had offered to purchase it.

The last Congress in its Panama canal legislation provided, among other things, that no railroad-owned ships can use the canal in the coastwise trade. The Pacific Mail is owned by the Southern Pacific Company and is therefore barred by that provision. Of late various reports have been made that it was a sale of the railroad would go around the law by distributing Pacific Mail stock among Southern Pacific stockholders as a "union" to hold individually.

One rumor had it that the Hamburg-American Company of Germany had an option on the company. Then the Royal Mail Packet Line of England and the International Marine Company of this country was likewise mentioned as probable purchasers. It was also said the railroad would get around the law by distributing Pacific Mail stock among Southern Pacific stockholders as a "union" to hold individually.

"Pacific Mail has not been sold nor has any one appeared to buy," said Schwerin last evening. "The company will go right along with its present service and traffic policy."

HITS COMPANY HARD.
"Of course, the drastic law passed by Congress hits the company's ambition, also deal the best interests of the coast and the American merchant marine a bad knock. The Pacific Mail had obtained bids from American shippers, making certain changes in view of their using the canal. It was aimed to use these steamers in a fine New York, San Francisco and Orient service."

"All these plans have been cancelled. 'Owners of American shippers' have no concern in the country, save the Pacific Mail, has asked them to build new ships for use through the canal. Other countries are preparing ships for the canal, but the United States is not, and it has prevented the one company that wished to do so. But the deed is done and that ends it."

"No, it is not true that I am going with the Newport News Shipbuilding Company as its president, through an offer by the Huntington people its owners," he said in answer to another question. "So far as I am aware I will be continued in my position with the Pacific Mail and the San Francisco and Portland Steamship companies."

Alarming Reports Given Out by Friends of the Magnate.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—A deputy sergeant-at-arms in the Senate came to New York yesterday with a subpoena for William Rockefeller to appear as a witness before the Senate committee in Washington. Neither at Rockefeller's office, in the Standard Oil building, nor at his country home, near Tarrytown, could any definite information be obtained concerning either his whereabouts, the condition of his health or his intention as to accepting service.

Friends of the Standard Oil magnate gave contradictory reports concerning both his whereabouts and his health. Some of them asserted positively that he was at Tarrytown, but others said that recent attempts to find him had failed. It is known that when Rockefeller last returned from Europe he told the ship news reporters that he was in bad health. His ill health was then generally attributed to stomach trouble of a serious and probably inoperable nature.

Several of his friends said yesterday he was in no danger from this trouble, but others asserted that they had reason to believe that his malady was cancer of the stomach.

MAY PARE DOWN BIG SKYSCRAPER

The Singer Building Found to Project Beyond Building Line.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The department of public works of New York City has just completed a series of surveys which it declares show that the Liberty street side of the big Singer building projects fifteen inches beyond the building line. In a few days a formal legal notice will be served upon the owners that they must pare down the building or the city will do it for them.

The owners declare that no alterations will be made unless under some very active litigation. Their answer to the formal notice will be an injunction in which street locations, sidewalk locations, official surveys, ordinances and laws beginning around 1877 and running down to date will be challenged.

The action to be taken against the Singer building will be the most extensive yet undertaken in the campaign of the city to recover its sidewalk. If the city should win and compel the company to move its building back a quarter foot and three inches the cost of the job will run into the hundreds of thousands of dollars.

EX-CONVICT IS ARRESTED.
CHICO, Oct. 22.—Believing that he was implicated in a robbery that took place recently in Washington the police here yesterday afternoon arrested a street walker who had been working from place to place in the interests of the Prohibition party. He wore stripes and declared himself a reformed drunkard. His description tallied with that of a criminal wanted by the city and he was held for identification. The fellow readily admitted his involvement and has been identified to show that he is really a reformed criminal and that he is not a dangerous element and that he is not a threat to the Prohibition party.

SHIP FLOODED BY MAMMOTH COMBER

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 22.—While crossing into the Columbia river, bound from Coos Bay, the steamer Breakwater was struck by a mammoth comber, flooding several staterooms, the coal bunkers and the gallery. Mrs. McNeil, a passenger, who was returning from Marshfield to her home at Seaside, was badly bruised by being thrown to the floor of her stateroom. All her baggage was ruined by water.

The sea went on into the coal bunkers. Its force was so great that the coal shifted. The sea then broke into the gallery, flooding it and doing damage to the staterooms when they were hit by the onrushing water. Heavy damage was also done to the main deck. The Breakwater encountered rough weather throughout the passage to the river. Coos Bay bar was rough when she crossed out, and she struck the bottom, 50c in stamps and it will be sent by mail but suffered no serious damage.

Have Some "Time Off"

"A man's work is from sun to sun, a woman's work is never done." An old saying that, but certainly not a truism—at least not with the woman who works intelligently and who has modern conveniences at hand.

And the modern convenience that assists as much as any other in helping the busy housewife to have some "time off" during the day is to cook with gas. Cooking with gas saves time and work. With gas in the house there's no tedious, time-consuming "getting ready" for a meal, no exasperating, troublesome cleaning-up after it. It helps shorten women's working hours by doing all that's demanded in the shortest possible time.

Cooking with gas is quick, clean, satisfactory. And thrifty women are unanimous in declaring it to be economical.

Why not have "Pacific Service" in your home. Don't consider its cost—that will take care of itself to your satisfaction. Consider the comfort derived from its use—its great convenience. A phone call or postal will bring a representative to you with full information.

"Pacific Service" is "Perfect Service."

ALAMEDA

BERKELEY MAN WRITES OPERA

ALAMEDA, Cal., Dec. 22.—Joseph Marks, 41 years of age, thirty-two years old and living at Twelfth street, East Oakland, was arrested at 4:40 in the Alameda police court this morning on a charge of disturbing the peace. The complainant was Joseph Deers, a "bawdy" street bawler. Marks was arrested by Deers about five minutes after he had been released from jail after being arrested as a drunk. He was arrested on the second charge before he got away from the city hall. He furnished $100 bail and was released on some unusual features, which caused the juvenile court to intervene. While the case was on in the police court this morning Marks, Deers, Mrs. Deers and the two children of the Deers, were cited to appear in the police court in Oakland tomorrow. The citations were served by Probation Officer Eli Brediger.

"The new republic will not suffer from factional disputes, as has been the custom when other monarchical governments have been overthrown, such as France, Spain and Mexico, because in China there are no pretenders. The overthrown Manchian dynasty has been steadily decaying for years, and when the people perceived that it had become useless they replaced it. The success of this last revolution has been mainly due to capable and responsible leadership, for the men who are at present the leaders of the new government are true and conscientious, and have for their jewels the uplifting of the Chinese people."

BERKELEY, Oct. 22.—City Auditor M. L. Hanscom has entertained for several days recently his playmate of boyhood—Loyall Farragut, well known writer and son of Admiral David G. Farragut, of Civil war fame. Farragut and Hanscom were schoolmates together in Valparaiso in 1854 when the former's father came west to establish the navy yard and was there. The pair had not met in thirty-seven years. Loyall Farragut is a graduate of the West Point academy and a lieutenant retired of the regular army. He is now on his way home to New York city.

"Berkus' trust affiliations are so well known that I need waste no time in proving them. The same is true of Frank's. He is a very large holder of Steel, Iron and Coal trusts. He is a very large holder of pure water, of a branch of the Steel, Iron and Coal trust, who gave $17,000 to the cause of social justice at the recent Ohio state fair. Frank's firm, Westcott, owned $100,000 in behalf of 'pure politics' at a recent Pittsburgh Primary, and a lot of other trust officers, trust stockholders and trust politicians. Probably it will be the total cost of the Roosevelt campaign in 1912, but we already know that it ran into high figures, and we know that the money came largely, if not mostly, from the same sources."

HE SHOCKS MANY

prophet of social justice. "My own heart cries out for social justice and I believe that the hearts of nearly all our people cry out for social justice. Some of us do not believe, however, in the hope of social justice residing in one man only and that man, Mr. Roosevelt. To these who do not believe it, let me put the question: Are you sure that Mr. Roosevelt is wholly earnest in his support of these principles that are so new and strange to him? For no one has exceeded him in his former denunciations of those political tendencies which he now supports.

fluence, he might have brought in some of this social justice. Was he a Socialist? No. He was a capitalist. He was a capitalist who called a witness whose words were good until very recently at least, with good Bull Moose friends. Senator Works: "And I am all at things. In all my life, and I am a Socialist. I am a Socialist proper sense a Progressive. During his seven years as President he was controlled by political bosses and reactionaries, and he own people became reactionaries. Large trusts promoters, political bosses as corrupt as ever disgraced a political party. Until he became a candidate for President he was a plain man. He was a plain man. He was a plain man. He never allied himself."

Miss M. L. Kissell, an expert in domestic science, is a member of the faculty of the California faculty at the beginning of the present college year, is responsible for the club department. With a number of the club members she has been about to get the endorsement for the formation of the school. Although it is not yet a fact, it is believed that a plan made which would provide adequately for the employment of instructors, the supplying of the necessary equipment and the erection of a building for the purpose. Miss Kissell nor those associated with her in the move are at liberty to state the details of the plan.

Engaged in the same branch of work in Chicago, Miss Kissell's success at the present time has brought no more than a few students desirous of studying in various branches of domestic art that she is desirous to obtain for California, if possible, an organized department of the study.

In speaking of the proposed new department of the university, President Brandegee said yesterday: "I think it is a work in which I am highly in sympathy. In taking up this branch of education, California is showing the lead for other universities. The immense popularity of the courses which have been added this year to the curriculum proves their worth. It is the sort of thing that counts."

The police took Stephenson into custody on a misdeemeanor charge of driving on the wrong side of the road and on a charge of driving while intoxicated and fined him $10 bail. When it developed that Pimental might die of his injuries, Stephenson was re-arrested. The cattlemen expressed contrition at what had happened and has offered to take care of the victim's family and pay all expenses.

McFarland and Azeveda Will Meet in Ten-Round Bout at West Oakland Tonight

NO MATTER HOW OAKS FARE, IT HAS BEEN A GREAT TEAM

Like All Clubs, the Boys Have Made Mistakes; Show Us Those That Haven't.

They're off. The final week of the 1912 baseball season is upon us and next Sunday afternoon the anxious fans will know who is who in that race for the bunting. Today Oakland is battling with Los Angeles and Vernon is battling with Portland. At Sacramento the lowly Senators and the Seals are indulging in a series of games that will cut no figure whatsoever in the outcome of the race, but the other two series will.

When the ump started the boys away today Oakland was two full games, or about nine points, to the good of Vernon, and with an even break there isn't a reason in the world why they should not so finish.

True, the Oaks have been badly crippled and are badly crippled now for with Patterson out of the game the club is shy one of the most valuable of all ball players. Perhaps some fans don't figure one man an item in a ball team, but Patterson is an exceptionally fine ball player whose hitting, base running and fielding have been sadly missed by the team.

Then Oakland had Zacher on the sick list for two weeks, just when he was badly needed. As he is, he is a man to play last Sunday and it was his timely hitting that helped the Oaks win their afternoon game.

As for Vernon, they have taken on a new lease of life and one can not overlook the fact that when Vernon is right is a mighty strong ball team. Still Oakland is just as good against Los Angeles as form as Vernon is against the Beavers. Therefore it looks like Oakland will be the winner, but the odds for the first time since 1902.

And while we are on the subject, just remember that the Oaks have a good word here and there will make the boys feel that we will be proud to say that MY CITY, OAKLAND, WON THE 1912 pennant.

TYLER CHRISTIAN WOULD DO. While there is more truth than poetry in that story about Arthur Devlin handling the Oaks in 1912, the fans are asking why should Arthur Devlin be given the preference over a local man—Tyler Christian, for instance.

Devlin is not a good ball player, but surely no sane man can figure him in place of Helling and that is about the only position in which Devlin could play. True, he did a little work around the initial sack for Boston but again would be no an improvement over Tiedemann.

No means. Morever, Devlin is a trouble maker, but the George Stallings who recommended him, and it was his trouble making that the Giants gave him the walking papers.

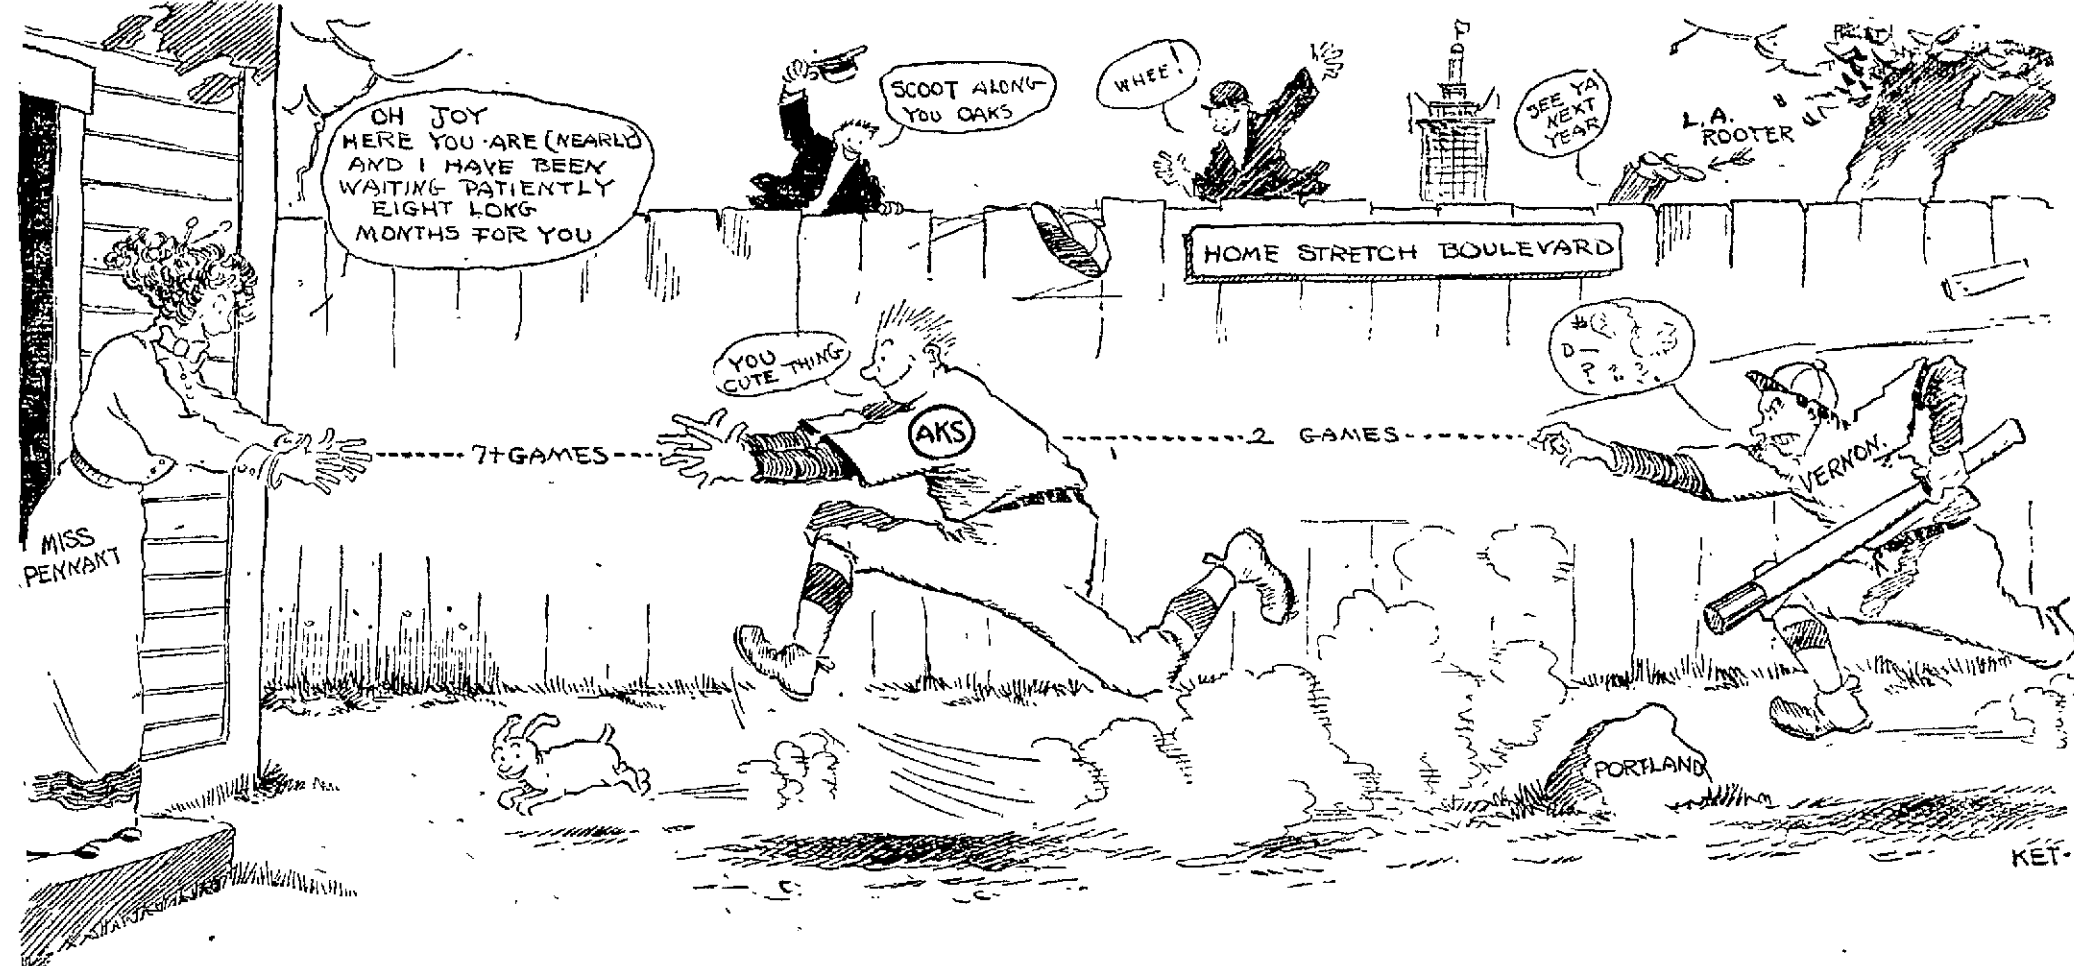

Surely, Oakland wouldn't think of getting a man from Los Angeles who is a trouble maker and a trouble maker to handle the team. If Oakland had a man who could handle the team in a satisfactory manner they need not go any further than Tyler Christian; and, moreover, the public belongs to him.

Christian is a clean cut, manly man. A credit to baseball. No booze shops do not patronize him, and he is well liked by every man on his team and by every fan who loves baseball.

Really, if you are going to jump his job and go back where the cotton blossoms bloom let the Oakland management show its appreciation of a ball player who has given his best for the team, through thick and thin and make Tyler Christian the manager for 1913.

EWING SIGNS AUSTRALIAN TEAM. Ed Ewing, Cal. Evening News baseball writer, has signed up the team that will play at San Francisco on November 10. Here they are: Pitchers—Jack Killaly, P. Parkin, Bonner, Charlie Brown and Ed. Catchers—Bill Miller and Dutch Auer. Infielders—H. Miller of Sacramento, Bill Leard, Harry McCard and Jack Wulff. Outfielders—Howard Mundorf and Elmer Zacher.

Most of the pitchers have been chosen with a view to winning them in other positions, if necessary.

CHARGE AGAINST ARMY REITERATED

Forrest Says He Can Prove the Salvationists Are in Money Making Scheme.

School Director John Forrest's public statement that the Salvation Army "was in business for purposes of revenue only" brought about an hour's debate last night at the Board of Education. At the close of the discussion, the question of whether the school children of the city would be invited to give the customary Thanksgiving donations to the Army had been decided first in the affirmative and then left up in the air again by Director Branner's move to reconsider.

In support of his attitude, Forrest had presented a statement received from the Salvation Army which was a direct business in itself, purely commercial, not answerable to the evangelical officers at all, but used as a financial support for furthering the religious branch.

FORREST'S CHARGES.

Forrest quoted figures to show that the amount of clothing sold in Oakland by the Army and estimated that the apparent character of some of the patrons indicated that they were second hand dealers. He said that the prices charged for clothing and furniture compared with that obtained by second hand dealers. The fact that 5,000 garments were given away free last year in this city by the Army did not, in Forrest's opinion, do away with the fact that the Army made a substantial profit on much of the goods donated to paid soldiers for the Army.

Representing the cause of the evangelist were Ensign A. E. Dayton and an assistant and Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Logan of Piedmont. Denial was made that any grant ever granted by school children of Oakland had ever been sold, or that anyone who asked for clothing at any time and could not pay for it was ever sent away empty-handed.

SAYS HE CAN PROVE IT.

Forrest contended that the Board of Education could not afford to show preference to any religious or charitable organization, and declared his ability to prove by evidence that the Salvation Army was a commercial, money-making organization.

When the matter came to a vote, Forrest and Branner voted in favor of tabling the request of the Army, the others voting no. Branner then gave notice he would move for a reconsideration at the next meeting.

FREIGHT TRAFFIC SHOWS INCREASE

Southern Pacific to Increase
Number of Refrigerator
Cars to 13,100.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 22.—Evidence of the prosperity of the western states is furnished by figures made known by the Southern Pacific company as to the number of loaded cars loaded this season. The average loading on the lines of this company in California is greater by 4,200 cars a month over the same period last year, or about 200 cars a day.

Railroads have been heavily pressed for rolling stock because of the sudden demand for service. Only the hearty cooperation on the part of the shippers has made it possible to keep all the traffic moving. The large fruit firms have instructed their agents not to delay or divert shipments unnecessarily and have agreed to load cars as fast as they can.

The Pacific Fruit express, according to an announcement made by President Sproule of the Southern Pacific company, has ordered 2,000 more refrigerator cars. The latest order, for 1,000 cars, together with the 1,000 recently ordered, will bring up this line's total equipment to 13,100 cars, representing an investment of over $20,000,000, all to be available on July 1 of next year, in time for the 1913 fruit movement.

The cars are designed especially for the fruit packages peculiar to California and the west and will load easily and economically. They will be fitted with both collapsible tanks and a modern system of heat insulation.

BURGLARS LOOT PUBLIC SCHOOL.

BLUE RIBBONS CAPTURED BY OAKLAND COCKER SPANIELS

CHAMPION MISSION ROUTE, WINNER OF BLUE RIBBON AT THE SANTA ROSA RENCHI SHOW.

Mrs. Teddy Klehofer of Oakland has again won high honors as the owner of high-bred cocker spaniels. Last Saturday evening at Santa Rosa Champion Mission Route won the blue ribbon in the male class and, braced with Lady Cozette, was also given a blue ribbon.

Added to these high honors Mrs. Klehofer's Juanita K. was awarded a blue ribbon in the puppy class.

What made the winning all the more gratifying was the fact that Judge Watson of the New York Kennel Club did the judging and pronounced Mrs. Klehofer's entries the finest that he had ever been called on to judge.

AMERICAN WOMEN RULE, SAYS AUTHOR

Karin Michaelis Declares That Fair Sex Here Is Superior.

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 22.—Karin Michaelis, the author of "The Dangerous Age," who is now Mrs. Stangland and resides in America, contributes an article to the Politiken, in which she gives her impressions of the modern American woman. She says the normal standard in America is doubtless higher than in Europe, although many things which are done openly in Europe are hidden in America under a mark of hypocrisy.

"The American man regards woman as a kind of higher being, and if he refuses to admit her to the labor market or to suffrage it is because he thinks she is too good for work or politics. Fidelity to marriage is general among American women. Woman has no cause to be otherwise than faithful, being perfectly content with her lot, as her husband does everything to please her and treats her after fifteen years of married life the same as after fifteen days."

In giving a word picture of fifth avenue, New York, between 2 and 5 o'clock in the afternoon, when only women are visible because the men are at work, the writer says:

"The mode and demi-mode cannot be distinguished apart. Both are terribly painted, and their golden hair and violet eyes are of highest chic, as well as their lustrous ankles and carmine lips. This mingling of mode and demi-mode is a terrible temptation to young girls. Much could be said about this, but the sexual problem is tabooed in the American press, although horrible murders may be told in detail, with pictures and letter press."

SMITHS LEAD LIST OF HARVARD STUDENTS

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 22.—The Smiths predominate at Harvard just as they do in any other cosmopolitan community. Out of approximately 5,500 students listed in the college catalogue, just 50 bear the name of Smith. The Browns are a poor second, with twenty-four representatives, but are tied with members of the Davis family.

The Joneses are away down in the official standing, being seventh. Eleven men answer to the call of Wilson, as against three Roosevelts and two Tatfs.

Aub has the honor of being the first name in the directory and is also the shortest. Aab has no surname. He is a Siamese prince.

A. B. See is another chap whose name is unique. His fellow collegians call him "the human alphabet." Then there are two Weeds and four Weeks, to say nothing of one Darling, Bachelor, Learned, Dodge, Spooner, Stuart, Feun, Ham, Lock, Moore, New, Nica, Nix, Pangs, Pickle, Pounder, Sci, Story and Sun.

KING VISITS AMERICANS.
LONDON, Oct. 22.—The King left this evening for Hungerford to spend a few days as the guest of John Hubert Ward and Mrs. Ward. Mrs. Ward was Miss Jean Reid, daughter of American Ambassador Whitelaw Reid.

THE BEST COUGH SYRUP IS EASILY MADE AT HOME

This recipe makes a pint of cough syrup, and saves you about $2.00 as compared with ordinary cough remedies. It stops obstinate coughs—croup, whooping cough—in a hurry, and is splendid for sore lungs, asthma, croup, hoarseness and other throat troubles.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of warm water, and stir for five minutes. Add 1/2 pint of Pinex (10 cents worth) in a pint bottle, and add the Sugar Syrup. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours. Tastes good.

This takes right hold of a cough and gives almost instant relief. It stimulates the appetite, and is slightly laxative—both excellent features.

Thousands of homes in the United States and Canada now use this Pinex and Sugar Syrup recipe. This plan has often been imitated, but the old successful formula has never been equaled. Its low cost and quick results have made it immensely popular.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, write to the Pinex Co., P. O. Box 100, New York, N. Y.

Famous Actor Will Be Seen in the Role of 'Dublin
Dan.'

Barney Gilmore, noted actor, is to be seen in a picture play at the Camera. As a star in the theatrical firmament Barney Gilmore has always been conspicuous. His winning personality has made him stand out prominently in the constellation of melodrama. Coupled with his courtly manners and suavity, is his historic ability. The soft liquid tones of his melodious voice has often gone to the very heart of the audience and made her a worshiper at his Thespian altars. He has enjoyed public adoration ever since he began his career on the stage in 1890, and since he has had a long line of merited successes.

During his career Gilmore, or Barney, as he is familiarly called by the people who idolize him, has performed before 3 Presidents, and has always had their friendship and admiration. (Quite an achievement.) He knows as many prominent personages as Roosevelt—who, by the way, is one of his admirers. Among his personal friends are John L. Sullivan, Jim Corbett and Tom Sharkey. Barney was the first to recognize in Eva Thorne a good comedienne and secured for her an engagement with Sam H. Speck's Opera Company.

Barney has been in nearly every town in the country starting in such attractions as "Dublin Dan, the Irish Detective," "Kidnapped in New York," "Rocky Road to Dublin," "Kelly from the Emerald Isle" and other big productions. Early in his career he had wonderful success with a vaudeville skit called "Ireland's Kings."

Gilmore will be seen for tomorrow only in his latest success, "Dublin Dan, the Irish Detective," in 3 acts, 3000 feet of intense interest at that popular photography theater, The Camera.

LETHBRIDGE, Alberta, Oct. 22.—After an enthusiastic and opening jubilation of yesterday and today, the annual Dry Farming Congress got down to hard work. A feature of today's program was the opening of the second International Congress of Farm Women. Mrs. Leslie M. Stavert of Winnipeg, president of the organization, convened the assembly. Mrs. Bulyea, wife of the lieutenant governor of Alberta, welcomed the delegates on behalf of the dominion and several other addresses were made.

At the afternoon session of the women's congress Dr. J. H. Worst, president of the North Dakota Agricultural College, delivered an address on "Educating the Boy for Farm Life" while Miss Mathews, superintendent of the Oklahoma Women's Institute, spoke on farm homes.

This evening a general reception is to be held at the auditorium.

Mason & Hamlin PIANO

San Francisco, October 10, 1912.

THE MASON & HAMLIN CO., Boston, Mass.

Gentlemen—I wish to write to reassure you of my enthusiasm and admiration for the Mason & Hamlin Piano. It is a well-known fact that all pianos (not containing the TENSION RESONATOR as exclusively used in the Mason & Hamlin Pianos) deteriorate with age, but I wish to say that the Mason & Hamlin Grand Piano, which I purchased two years ago has actually improved.

While I have given letters recommending other makes as good pianos, I am the proud possessor of a Mason & Hamlin and I still maintain that it is, unqualifiedly, the best piano now manufactured. Wishing you continued success, I am,

Very sincerely yours, (Signed) GYULA ORMAY.

Easy to Get Relief From Indigestion

Your stomach should digest the food you eat, without the aid of any artificial dietetics. If it won't do that, then you are continually subject to dyspepsia, heartburn, headache and constipation.

Instead of taking digestive medicines, take steps to get your stomach and intestines again in a healthy, natural condition. Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge will do this for you if you take it regularly.

It is not a stimulant, and it will not cause your stomach any more trouble than they will attend to their natural functions, digesting what you eat and giving strength to the body.

For more than eighty years thousands of men and women who had suffered the pains caused by dyspepsia and indigestion, have been praising this Tonic as the only remedy which brought them permanent relief. As the Tonic acts directly upon the stomach and intestines, it is a natural purgative and strength builder.

Many forms of supposed indigestion are the result of intestinal parasites, for which Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge is recommended. It will not only kill the parasites, but it will also build up the system. Dr. B. Jayne & Co., Philadelphia, Pa.

CALIFORNIA GIVES $208,103 TO FAIR

First Installment of the Tax
Levy Is Paid to Commissioners.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 22.—California has contributed $208,103 to date toward the Pacific-Pacific International Exposition, according to figures available in the office of State Controller Nye. A balance of $1,082,194 remains to the credit of the state exposition commission from the first tax levy which netted the state $1,270,297.

Next month the exposition tax levied on California railroads for this year will be due and the balance will be swelled many thousands more.

County taxes will swell the fund again when paid next April and May. With actual construction work practically begun on the exposition project the demands on the state commission, having the expenditure of the $5,000,000 voted by the state for this work, will come in much faster and larger. The coming year may see a depletion of the state's exposition fund before another year is over.

DEATH OF NAVAL OFFICERS.

VALLEJO, Oct. 22.—An unhealed shortage of officers for the Pacific fleet is now one of the problems that is troubling the navy department. It is learned that unless some steps are taken the reserve fleet at Bremerton will have to be abandoned, as every man available has been pressed into service at Nicaragua.

John Heath, Michigan Post, Oct. 22.—"I was afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for nearly six years. Had a very bad spell recently, and was unable to move without pain. I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Pills and can truly say I was relieved at once. I take pleasure in recommending Foley's Kidney Pills."
